JUDGMENT

Sri.K.Prabhakaran, standing counsel for Kerala State Road Transport Corporation has not been able to get instructions.

2. However, considering the medical records Ext.P3 series produced by the petitioner, I feel that this is a case where this court will be justified, in terms of the judgment in W.A.No.1775/04, in directing disbursal of retirement benefits out of turn to the petitioner.

3. Under this circumstance, the writ petition will stand disposed of with the following directions.

If the staff welfare fund amount is not yet released, the respondents will release the same to the petitioner within one month from the date of receipt of a copy of this judgment. Considering the precarious condition of the petitioner's health, the respondents will also release the amount due to the petitioner by way of DCRG within six weeks of receiving copy of this judgment. The respondents will take an early decision on the question of releasing refixation benefits to the petitioner. The decision in this context will be taken within one month of receiving a copy of this judgment and communicated to the petitioner.
